MK211 -
"The Next Eleanor"

From the Editor

By: NHeer-Design

The first annual PSU Chop Awards have finally been announced, "only" a month late. On the following pages are the winners, in all their glory.

2006 was a great year for chopping. Let's see that effort kept up!

REC's extreme Seat Arosa easily took home the best tuner brushing award.

Best Tuner Brushing REC's Seat Arosa

"Ohhhhhh man!!! Very very very VERY hot chop" - Davee

"Beautiful. Simply amazing" - NHeer-Design

"Nice style!" - Br4d3n

"Everything is superb" - karkensonas

"Man, that's brushing skills!" - eha

"Very good chop, keep it up" - bo-ris8

"Wow man, that car is HOT!" - Crazy-Tuner

"That looks amazing. I love this style" - Smithgraphix

"You turned a piece of turd into a mean [...] little beast" - flame_design

"You should be advanced in no time, mate" - ronod

Best Tuner Style stjoseph1903's Honda Civic NFS_Carbon Edition

"Amazing! Love it" - Fomly

"Good job. Love the reflections, awesome job on the front bumper." - elgato

"Wow! This is amazing" - Anubis-artS

This Honda Civic was easily one of the most extreme chops of 2006, and took home the style award.

Other Tuner Awards

Well, the two most major Tuner Chop Awards have been virtually handed out. Now, let's take a look at the remaining categories.

The "Most Innovative Modification on a Tuner Chop" award goes to Black Design's Subaru Tokyo Drift Edition.

The award for the best truck chop goes to gabesz's Scania R420.

The award for the best exotic chop goes to Active Design's October BDS Demo Car, a Ferrari 360 Modena.

Finally, the award for the best background in a Tuner Chop goes to stjoseph1903's Vauxhall Astra. stjoseph_1903 also took home the most Tuner awards.

Well done everybody!

Easily one of the best Advanced chops of 2006, roobi's Peugeot makes even the most talented choppers quiver in fear.

Best Advanced Brushing roobi's Peugeot 407

"Holy st man, amazing!" - ale-designs

"You are the best, man" - buga-molehiya

"My god, I'm shocked" - -XpaZ

"Your style is so amazing" - hugo-silva

"Well done like always" - Cloud

"That toxic green [paint] is awesome" - gazellah

"Woah!! This is insane!" - MK211

Best Advanced Style Uh oh... a tie!

Weird things seem to happen in every contest or competition that PSU has held. In this case, there was a tie for the best style in an Advanced chop. Since we couldn't come to a consensus, we'll show all three.

NOM15's Nissan Silvia S15:

"Oh my god, that is f-a-u-l-t-l-e-s-s" - hugosilva

"There should be a god section [to] put you in" - ronod

AMV's Nissan Proto GT-R

"Your style [...] it's just plain sick" - MadeMan

roobi's Seat Cordoba

Other Advanced Awards

The award for the most innovative modification in an Advanced chop goes to jonsibal's BMW E36 Transformer.

The award for the best truck chop goes to Jakusa's Scania R420 Racing Concept.

The award for the best exotic chop goes to MK211's Aston Martin DBKR.

The best background in a chop goes to MK211's Shelby GT500 Concept (The next Eleanor). This chop is pictured on the cover, not below.

The best concept/impression chop of 2006 from an Advanced member goes to Jakusa's GT Evo Concept.

TUNERCOTY2006

March 20, 2007

A simply awesome chop from Jakusa, before he became an Advanced member

Jakusa's GTR26

It was a tricky choice selecting the Tuner Chop of the Year. There were 36 nominees, collected from all of the 2006 Chop of the Month nominees. The results were surprising, but one entry eventually stood above the rest. That car is the GTR26, a completely insane concept from Jakusa.

Everything about this chop, from the crazy front end to the wing has been painstakingly created by Jakusa to fulfill his dream concept. Or maybe it's a nightmare, judging by how aggressive the styling is. In any case, this is a chop ranked extremely high by everyone.

If you look closely at the chop, you will notice the little badges debossed into the metal sections in the front, and the subtle screwholes on the rear metal vent.

This chop, while perhaps not the most extreme or the most radical, does carry with it what the Chop of the Year should have: it covers everything. It's aggressively styled from nose to tail, but the quality of the brushing and chopping is extremely high.

Jakusa took home 3 awards this year, and deserved every single one of them.

Glacius' Concept is one of the most radical chops ever to hit the chopping community

Glacius' Concept

Glacius' Concept is awe inspiring. The pictures should do the talking on this 100% brushed chop.
